MUSIC INSIDE YOUR WORKPLACE?

Have you ever thought about bringing music lessons to your offices as a benefit for your employees?

Music Makers can make this possible for you, bringing countless benefits to your company and employees. All our music programs are custom designed to work with total beginners and those with musical backgrounds. They have been proven to reduce stress, improve mood, make better listeners and add a positive experience to the work environment.

WHAT WE DO?

With more than 20 years of experience creating and developing unique programs for a diverse set of corporate clients, Music Makers will allow your employees to engage in the positive experience of learning music, singing, playing an instrument or being in a band.

The result? A more desirable workplace with world-class employee benefits that stimulates creativity and wellness.

BEYOND THE MUSIC

In addition to musical learning being a natural outcome of this experience, the goal of our programs is to create opportunities for practicing the values of cooperation and teamwork among all the individuals and groups involved.

We use the band setting as an effective communication model, through customized group exercises. This will provide a fun-interpersonal experience that creates cohesion in groups while strengthening working relations.

BENEFITS OF MUSIC AT YOUR WORKPLACE

Applying the tenets of Music to a corporate setting is an innovative alternative to building a business advantage in today's highly competitive corporate climate.

Why have music lessons in your office?

- Playing music has a positive effect on stress levels, anxiety & mood
- Reward your fellow employees with a unique learning and recreational experience.
- Increase productivity, problem solving, effective communication and employment engagement.
- Create stronger teams and a sense of community within your employees and working facilities.

Mainstream companies such as Google and Spotify know this and have made corporate efforts to make Music Programs a staple in cultivating more positive and effective work environments
